PREFACE.

No apology is necessary in presenting this work. It was compiled and written for the benefit of those members of the Stephens family who are interested in their ancestry; others who care nothing for their genealogy will probably not trouble themselves to read the book, and if they should examine it, will no doubt discover errors and omissions, as it has been impossible for the compiler to visit personally every correspondent to verify and complete each record, and from so many sources of information some must necessarily be inaccurate.

The method of arranging and numbering the names has been adopted as the simplest for reference, and at the same time will allow additional facts to be published in succeeding volumes, without interfering with the present enumeration.

Nothing definite has been learned concerning the ancestry of Peter Stephens, and he has therefore been numbered (1) as being the head of the family; the succeeding numbers have been given as names were received. While several branches of the family of Peter Stephens are missing, yet the early county records of Frederick County, Virginia, contain numerous accounts of transactions, etc., of members of the family. These records are now being searched carefully and the results will be contained in succeeding volumes.

In regard to the nationality of Peter Stephens (1) there seems to be some doubt. According to Kercheval, he was probably a German, though others claim that he was of English or Welsh descent. Authorities in York, Reading and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, have been written to and the archives searched, but nothing was discovered relating to him.

This work, although intended primarily as a record of the Stephens family, will also include any or all collateral branches whose genealogy can be obtained, especially when tracing back their ancestry over one hundred years. This, while bringing in casually other families, they are properly included in a history of the Stephens family.

This record is certainly not as complete as it would be in a year or two, neither will it be as complete then as in five or ten years.

Probably no one would wish to wait ten years for it, yet a number of correspondents have advised delaying publication until the entire history of the family could be obtained. Desirable as this would be, it is practically impossible, and the more so because these same correspondents are the very ones who wait from three to twelve months before replying to a letter asking for information. To wait for all would leave the final publication for our grandchildren.

It has therefore been found advisable to publish the data already obtained, and as new facts are learned and other branches of the family heard from, new volumes will be issued. And furthermore, facts once published are not so liable to be forgotten as if the memory alone of hundreds of individuals was depended upon to retain their knowledge.

While we cannot say positively that our ancestors were in any way celebrated, yet their names are not entirely unknown in history, and we may certainly not be ashamed of them.

Nearly all who were of age in 1776 were soldiers of the Revolution, and there were many hardy pioneers among them. Peter Stephens (1) was among the first to settle in the Shenandoah Valley, in Virginia, and founded the town of Stephensburg. His son Peter (4) penetrated further up the same valley to Wythe County, Virginia. His grandsons, Joseph (7), William (8) and Joseph Lawrence (16) were among the pioneers of Kentucky, John (10) in Tennessee and Ohio, and Joseph (7), mentioned above, was one of the first settlers in Cooper County, Missouri. In regard to later generations, as may be seen in the text, there have been, and still are, among them a number of prominent capitalists, politicians, lawyers, physicians and merchants, and without regard to occupation they are, as far as can be learned, honest, law-abiding citizens.

It is but just to acknowledge our indebtedness for valuable information to Samuel Kercheval, in his History of the Valley of Virginia"; to Henry C. Levens (245) and Nathaniel M. Drake in their "History of Cooper County, Missouri"; to Lawrence D. Stephens (252) of Woodland, California; to Thomas K. Cartmell, Clerk of County Court, Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia; and to B. A. Cecil Stephens of Los Angeles, California, Ex-Secretary of the Historical Society of Southern California. It may be stated here that Mr. B. A. Stephens is also compiling a record of his branch of the family, and though tracing his ancestry to early in the eighteenth century, when they settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania, we have as yet found no relationship.

We take this opportunity to thank all our correspondents for the interest they have shown and the general care they have taken in supplying local history.

SPECIAL REQUEST.

If any errors or omissions are discovered, please notify the author, and they will be printed on a slip of paper and sent to every subscriber. Or if any additional facts are learned, or new branches of the family are heard from, send for the necessary blanks, write out the records as completely as possible, and send for insertion in succeeding volumes.

The following are names of some of the Stephens', so far unidentified, but most certainly descendants of Peter Stephens (1). The names are taken from the Register of Marriages at Winchester, Virginia.

THE AMERICAN GENEALOGICAL RECORD.

VOL. I.

THE STEPHENS FAMILY WITH COLLATERAL BRANCHES.

(1) PETER STEPHENS.

Was born (probably in Pennsylvania) about the year 1690 or 1700. Nothing has been found in regard to the history of Peter Stephens except in "A History of the Valley of Virginia" by Samuel Kercheval (Winchester, 1833), from which the following extracts have been taken:

Page 64.—In the year 1732, Jost Hite, with his family, and his sons-in-law, viz: Jacob Bowman, Jacob Chrisman, and Paul Froman, with their families, Robert McKay, Col. Joshua Wheat, Peter Stephens and several others, emigrated from the city of Philadelphia, in Pennsylvania, carrying their effects down the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania, and then through the state of New York, and down the Hudson River to Albany, and from thence up the Mohawk River, about two miles above Schenectady. Here they left the Mohawk River, and crossed over land to Wood Creek, which they followed to Lake Oneida, thence through the Oneida Lake, and down the Oswego River to Lake Ontario, thence through Lake Ontario to the mouth of the Genesee River, thence up the Genesee River about two miles above Hopkins's Ferry. Here they left the Genesee River, and crossed over land to the Susquehanna River, and down the Susquehanna River to Harris's Ferry, where they left the Susquehanna River, and crossed over land to the Potomac River, and down the Potomac River to the mouth of Conococheague Creek, where they left the Potomac River, and crossed over land to Conococheague Creek, and down the Conococheague Creek to the mouth of Opequon Creek, about five miles south of Winchester, and then up the Opequon Creek, about five miles south of Winchester, and then by a direct highway to Winchester to Stephenstown, now the residence of the widow Spotswood, formerly Lucy Richard Peters Barton, Esq., and also the residence of Richard Wm. Barton, Esq.

Peter Stephens and several others settled at Stephensburg, and founded the town. Jacob Chrisman settled where is now called Chrisman's Spring, about two miles south of Stephensburg; Bowman on Cedar Creek, about six miles further south; and Froman on the same creek, eight or nine miles west of Bowman. Robert McKay settled on Crooked Run, eight or nine miles southwest of Stephensburg. The several other families settled in the same neighborhood, wherever they could find good land and water most convenient. From the most authentic information which the author has been able to obtain, Hite and his party were the first immigrants who settled west of the Blue Ridge. They were, however, very soon followed by numerous others.

Page 71.—Lewis Stephens, in the year 1756, built a stone house, the ruins of which are now to be seen at the old furnace works of the late General Isaac Zane. It will here be seen that these several stone buildings became of great importance to the people of the several neighborhoods as places of protection and security against the attacks of the Indians.

* Pronounced Hite's-town, Pronounced Stephens-bur-ug.

Page 133:—At the massacre of the people near White's Fort, one of Mrs. Inman's daughters, [illegible] the people [illegible] preparing to go to the fort, was requested by Mrs. Glouser, to take a bottle of milk in her hand and carry it to the fort, when the Indians assailed them, this young woman concealed herself behind a tree and finally escaped. As soon as she could run off without being discovered, she started and ran eight or nine miles with the bottle of milk in her hand. She was met by two of the Faucetts, near their residence; informed them of what had happened, and they forthwith removed their families to Stephen's fort.

Page 240:—In the month of September, 1758, the town of Stephensburg, in the County of Frederick, was established. This town was first founded by Peter Stephens, who came to Virginia with Jost Hite, in the year 1732. The ruins of Stephens's first cabin are yet to be seen. Lewis Stephens, the late proprietor of the town, was the son of Peter Stephens. He laid out the town in form, and applied to the general assembly to have it established by law, which was done in the year 1758. This town was first settled almost exclusively by Germans, and the religion, habits and customs of their ancestors were preserved with great tenacity for many years. The German language was generally used in this village since the author's acquaintance with it, which acquaintance commenced in the year 1784.

Page 239:—Tradition relates that Fairfax was much more partial to Stephensburg than he was to Winchester, and used all his influence to make Stephensburg the seat of justice, but that Wood outgeneraled his lordship, and by treating one of the justices with a bowl of toddy, secured his vote in favor of Winchester, which settled the question, and that Fairfax was so offended at the magistrate who thus sold his vote, that he never after spoke to him.

The following is the Will of Peter Stephens, now on record at Winchester, Va.:

PETER STEPHENS' WILL.

In the name of God, Amen: The twenty-eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord God one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, I, Peter Stephens, Senr., of Frederick County, in Virginia, yeoman, being sick and weak in body, but of perfect sound mind and memory, thanks be given to God, therefore calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing it appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this, my Last Will and Testament, that is to say: Principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I commend it to the earth to be buried in a Christian and decent manner, at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as Touching such Worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me

* Stephen's fort was at the site where Zion's Church now stands. It was afterwards erected on Cedar Creek. Mr. Elias Faucett, one of the oldest of the citizens, a very respectable and intelligent man, stated to the author that he had frequently heard his father and uncle speak of this occurrence.

[illegible] in this life, I give and devise, dispose of the same in the following manner and form hereinafter, my will is that if it pleaseth Almighty God to call me from this estate of life before my wife, Maria Christina Stephens, that she shall be truly and effectually invested with all and singular my Right Property and Interest of, in and to my Mansion House with the use and occupation of all and singular my lands, being the quantity of twenty-five acres, together with all and singular my movable or personal estate during her natural life, to be by her possessed without interruption or molestation of any person or persons whatsoever; and further, my will is that at and after the decease of my said wife, Maria Christina, the said Mansion House and twenty-five acres of land shall devolve to my eldest son, Lewis Stephens, his heirs or assigns forever, as fully and amply, to all intents and purposes, as I myself in my lifetime held and enjoyed the same. Provided, and it is my will, that in consideration of the said devise my eldest son shall pay unto my eldest daughter, Maria Christina, the sum of ten pounds current money; ten pounds to my second daughter, Maria Magdalene, together with the sum of ten pounds like money to my youngest daughter, Margaret, to be by them or their heirs received and enjoyed. Item, for that I have heretofore given to my second son, Lawrence Stephens, by virtue of a certain deed of lease and release the quantity of two hundred and twenty-five acres of land to be by him, his heirs and assigns, possessed forever, &c. Item, also I have heretofore given unto my third son, Peter Stephens, by virtue of a deed of lease and release the quantity of two hundred acres of land to be by him, his heirs and assigns, possessed forever, &c. Item, I give and bequeath to my youngest son, Henry Stephens, a certain tract or parcel of land containing the quantity of three hundred acres, be the same more or less, adjoining the new lines, to be possessed by him, his heirs or assigns, forever. Item, my will is that a certain tract of land, containing four hundred acres, be the same more or less, adjoining my former tracts of land which, by virtue of a Patent issued out of the office of Thomas Lord Fairfax in the year [illegible] appear, I give and bequeath to my eldest son, his heirs and assigns, forever, for the consideration of the sum of forty pounds current money, ten pounds of which I give to my eldest son, Lewis Stephens; ten pounds to my second son, Lawrence; ten pounds to my third son, Peter, and ten pounds to my youngest son, Henry, to be by them or their heirs received and enjoyed, &c. Item, my will is that my well beloved wife, Maria Christina Stephens, be an Executrix with my beloved son Lewis Stephens and my beloved son Lawrence Stephens Executrix and Executors of this, my Last Will and Testament. Revoking, annulling and making void all other Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made. Ratifying and confirming this and no other, my Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the date and year above written.

Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Peter Stephens as his last Will and Testament.

In the presence of us.

(3) LAWRENCE STEPHENS

Son of Peter Stephens (1) and Maria Christina ———. Born in ——— about 1750. Married Mary ——— about 1759. All of his children were born after 1753.

The following Will of Lawrence Stephens is copied from the archives at Winchester, Va.:

LAWRENCE STEPHENS' WILL.

In the name of God, Amen: I, Lawrence Stephens, of Frederick County and Colony of Virginia, being well in health and of perfect and sound memory, (thanks be to God for the same) but considering in mind the uncertainty of this life, and that all men must die do this second day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, make and publish this, my last will and testament in the manner following, that is to say—Imprimis, I commend my soul to Almighty God, and my body I commit to the earth, to be decently buried by and at the discretion of my executrix and executors hereinafter named, and as for my worldly estate, I dispose thereof as followeth: That is to say, I do first appoint all my debts and funeral expenses to be paid out of my real and personal estate, that is to say: I desire and order that two tracts of land lying on the westerly side of Shenandoah river, on the mains of Crooked Run, in the County aforesaid, to be sold by my executrix and executors hereinafter named, one of said tracts containing 163 acres, appears by his lordship's deed, dated the 30th day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five; the other tract, containing 550 acres as appears by deed as aforesaid, dated the 27th day of July, 1772; also two lots in the town of Stephensburg, formerly belonging to Frederick Shively; which tracts and lots I desire them to be sold by my executrix and executors within six months after my decease. In case the above tract doth discharge all my lawful debts, I will, and order that none of my personal estate shall be sold, and if the said tracts and lots (when sold) do sell for more than what will discharge my debts, I desire that it may be divided amongst the under named heirs. Item, I give to my wife all my movable estate and household furniture, together with the plantation which lies in the town of Stephensburg, containing 225 acres, for and during the time and term of nine whole years from my decease; it being for and in consideration of maintaining, clothing, schooling and raising up the legatees of her own body, and at the expiration of the above time or term the said plantation, with half of the household furniture and moveable estate to be given unto my son, George William, with the hereditaments and appurtenances. Also two hundred pounds, which is in the hands of Lawyer Jones, in order to assist him to discharge a mortgage which my Lord Fairfax has upon said tract of land. The third part of said place excepted for the use of my wife during her natural life, also one of the Negroes, either male or female kind, which she shall see cause to choose, which Negro I have her to dispose of as she pleases, and what Negroes I may have with their increase, I will and desire they may be sold by my Executrix and Executors, at the expiration of the above term of nine years, the amount of which sales are to be equally divided amongst my sons Peter, John, Jacob, Isaac, Joseph Lawrence and Bryan Martin, also a tract of land lying and being in the county aforesaid near the Sugar Hill, with all its tenements and appurtenances, unto the above named Legatees. Item, I give and devise to my said wife the house which I now live in with all the lots, outhouses and buildings thereon, erected and built, also Carver's bordering for natural life, and at the expiration of her natural life, I desire the same may be sold and the amount of the same to be divided between my sons Jacob, Isaac, Joseph, Lawrence and Bryan Martin. Item, I will and desire that my son George William shall pay unto each of the following Legatees the different sums here in after mentioned. (That is to say), to pay to my son Peter, ten pounds current money; my son John, ten pounds; my daughter Mary, ten pounds; my daughter Sarah, ten pounds; also my son Jacob, forty pounds; Isaac, forty ditto; Joseph Lawrence, forty pounds; and Bryan Martin, forty pounds, to be paid as above, by my son George William, at the end and term of nine years, after my decease, and if any of said sons and daughters shall happen to die before they come to the age of 21 years, I desire the same herein willed to them may be equally divided amongst the surviving Legatees here in mentioned. And lastly, I do hereby make and constitute, nominate and appoint her, my said wife, Mary Stephens, her, together with Col. John Hite, David Brown and Joseph Smith, of Maryland, joint Executrix and Executors of this, my last Will and Testament, desiring them to take upon themselves the execution of the same, and to see the same duly and truly performed, and also all reasonable expenses, costs and charges, as they, my said Executors, shall be at or expend in the execution of this, my Will, and the trust in them reposed shall be from time to time paid, borne and discharged out of my said estate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal.

(16) JOSEPH LAWRENCE STEPHENS.

Son of Lawrence Stephens (3) and Mary ———. Born in Shenandoah County, Virginia, 27 April, 1764. Married first Nancy Shackleford (17), in Virginia, 3 June, 1784, and three weeks later they went to Kentucky, accompanied by four other families, and settled at the place now called Ruddell's Mills in Bourbon County. He brought with him among other merchandise, fifty negro slaves, also bricks and material for building his houses. He opened the first farm in Bourbon County, and built the first distillery in that section; the foundations of which are still standing. His dwelling was built partly from material, bricks, etc., brought from Virginia, and partly from boards obtained from timber in the locality. These boards were all made by his negro slaves with a large rip-saw, one negro at each end of the saw. The building is still standing at Ruddell's Mills. His wife died 5 August, 1791, and on 12 January, 1792, he married Lucy Garrard (18), a niece of Gov. James Garrard, of Kentucky. He was a soldier in the revolutionary war. (See Collins' History of Kentucky, Vol. 1, p. 6). Died, April, 1848, in Ruddell's Mills, Kentucky.

(29) JOSEPH STEPHENS.

Son of Joseph Lawrence Stephens (16) and Lucy Garrard (18). Born in Ruddell's Mills, Kentucky, 9 February, 1798. He married Hannah Lawell (30), in March, 1819, and moved to Paris, Kentucky, where he built a residence, corner of Pleasant and Cherry Streets, in which he resided until his death in 1885. He first opened a jewelry store, but not liking this, soon gave it up and entered into the mercantile business (Dry Goods, etc.). After a few years his store was burned, proving almost a total loss. Not discouraged however, he immediately started again in the same line of business, in conjunction with a hemp and rope factory, doing extensive trading with the South. He brought his goods from Philadelphia by boats down the Ohio river to Maysville and thence to Paris in wagons, usually taking six or eight weeks for the round trip. Through the dishonesty of his associates he failed in this venture, and then, about 1858 embarked in the Grocery and General Merchandise business with his son Charles (43), remaining there until his death. He died in Paris, Kentucky, 2 April, 1885.

(47) REV. WILLIAM DAVIDSON STEPHENS.

Son of John Stephens (19) and Jeannette Vance (20). Born in Shenandoah County, Virginia, 7 October, 1792.

His parents moved to Sullivan County, Tennessee, about the year 1804. The following year, William D., at the Methodist Conference at that place (Bishop Asbury presiding), joined that church and afterward became a local Methodist preacher.

In 1809, he moved with his parents to Preble County, Ohio, then an exposed frontier. He was living there in 1812 at the commencement of the war with Great Britain. He served as a volunteer in two or three military tours against the Indians previous to 13 September 1813, when he was drafted into the army for six months, and served for that time under command of General William H. Harrison (afterwards President). The exposure to cold, hunger, etc., on this occasion, impaired his health so that he did not recover it for several years. During his military service he was generally (if not always) acting in the capacity of a scout.

He was married 24 October, 1815, to Mary Starrit De Freese (152), of Miami County, Ohio. They settled and opened a farm in Preble County, Ohio, on the "West Road" a few miles from Eaton, afterwards moving to that place, where he was instrumental in building the Methodist church. On 1 March, 1836, he started to Texas, but was deterred by the invasion of that province by Santa Ana, so he settled in Natchitoches Parish, La. (in what is now Sabine Parish). He afterwards held some Parish offices, etc., and in 1845, represented Sabine Parish in the Constitutional Convention of the State.

Soon after his arrival in Sabine Parish he obtained congenial employment as a carpenter and builder, his trade, and superintended the building of Fort Jessup, the headquarters of the American army under General Zachary Taylor (afterwards President). At Fort Jessup he gained the friendship of that sturdy, old soldier (for after Taylor's election to the Presidency, he still held his former acquaintance (Uncle Billy) in kindly remembrance, and of his own accord, offered him a position under his administration. Not wishing to leave his home, however, he refused any position.

He died in Sabine Parish, La., 16 April 1859.

Son of William Washington Garrard and ——— ———. Born in Culpepper County, Vermont, 13 December, 1772. Married, first, Nancy Wallern (132), in 1820, and moved to Florence, Alabama, about 1826. He was elected County Clerk and occupied the position for twenty years. On the breaking out of the Seminole Indian war he was appointed Brigadier General, commissioned by the Governor of Alabama, who ordered him to make up a company of men and arm them, declaring that the government would reimburse him for his outlay. He followed orders, but the government refusing to pay for the arms, all his property in Alabama was sold to pay the debt.

His wife died 7 August, 1827, in Florence, and about a year later (5 March, 1828), he married Elizabeth Stephens (27).

In 1839 he moved to Hardin County, Tennessee, where he resided until his death, Sunday, 15 August, 1847.

JAMES MADISON STEPHENS (55).

(55) JAMES MADISON STEPHENS.

Son of Joseph Stephens (7) and Rhoda Cole (10). Born in Wayne County, Kentucky, 13 January, 1809. Moved to Missouri with his father in 1817. Was raised on a farm in Cooper County, Missouri. When twenty-one years of age his father gave him a farm, upon which he built a house and farmed, keeping bachelor's hall for several years. On 24 September, 1834, he married Mary Ann Adams (56), of the same county. They lived on the farm nearly fifty years. He engaged in farming and stock raising, and before the war of secession was quite wealthy. He owned some fifteen or more negro servants, all of whom were freed by proclamation of President Lincoln.

In politics he was a Whig, though never aspired to any political distinction, always refusing to seek or accept office when pressed by his friends.

He and his wife made several trips to California to visit their children, the most of them having moved to this State, but always called the old homestead in Missouri their home. They lived to see all of their children grown and married, except one. He died 3 November, 1882, in Bruneton, Missouri.

(68.) JOHN DICKSON STEPHENS.

(Residence, Woodland, California.)

Son of Joseph Stephens (7) and Catherine Dickson (11). Born in Cooper County, Missouri, 23 September, 1826.

After finishing his education he taught a district school and read medicine. As a teacher he was a success and gained considerable notoriety among the pupils for obeying the scriptural injunction of "spare the rod and spoil the child," but he did not spare it. On the discovery of gold in California, he, with a great many of his neighbors started "the plains across" to seek his fortune in the mines. After mining successfully at Hangtown (now Placerville), for a short time, he moved to the Sacramento River, and took up a ranch. He soon sold out and bought his present ranch near Madison, consisting of six thousand five hundred acres, where his home was until he moved to Woodland. In November, 1853, he returned to Missouri by way of Panama, and on 5 January, 1854, was married to Miss Mary F. Alexander (born in Kentucky, 4 June, 1826). In the spring of 1854, they moved to California, crossing the plains in wagons and driving a large herd of cattle. In 1862, he went to Virginia City, Nevada, to try mining, but soon tired of that business and returned to Woodland. In 1869, with other capitalists, he organized the Bank of Woodland, and was elected President, which office he has been elected to annually ever since. In 1890, he bought the pleasure and health resort in Lake County, California, known as Highland Springs at a cost of about one hundred thousand dollars. He and his brother George D. Stephens (69), have been partners in all their business transactions since their arrival in this State. He was once, in the fifties, elected supervisor of Yolo County, but with that exception has never held an office, but has often refused to run for office pressed to do so by his friends.

70 ANDREW JACKSON STEPHENS.

(Residence, Aurora, Wise County, Texas.)

Son of Joseph Stephens (7) and Catherine Dickson (11). Born in Bunceton, Missouri, 29 November, 1830.

After completing his education, he began school teaching in 1850 and 1851. In 1852 he crossed the plains with L. D. Stephens (252) and others, going to California. He returned to Missouri in 1856 and in 1858 went to Texas with a drove of sheep. He afterwards started back to Missouri, but meeting Gen. Price and army during the late civil war, remained with them until after the battle of Wilson Creek. Then he went to Cooper County, Missouri, remaining only a short time, and returned to Texas in company with his mother, Nelson Hansburger, J. Q. Adams and their families (March, 1862). He then joined the Confederate army, the Second Missouri Cavalry, commanded by Col. Bob. McCullough, where he remained until the close of the war. He then, in 1865, returned to Texas, and on 21 December, 1865, married Ala Holford, born in Carroll County, Arkansas, 6 March, 1841. Has been engaged in stock raising and merchandising ever since.

OBITUARY OF MRS. NANNIE L. (STEPHENS) MALONE.

Mrs. Nannie L. (Stephens) Malone, daughter of Harry and Elizabeth Stephens and wife of Rev. B. H. Malone, departed this life in Clarendon, Arkansas, July 8, 1891; born July 11, 1842.

When about nine years of age she professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in which she lived a consistent member until God took her up higher. Nannie was a brilliant, beautiful, lovable child. Her mother, a cultivated and refined lady, imparted to the daughter her own excellent character of virtue and amiability. In her sixteenth year she was married to B. H. Malone, a teacher and minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. For nearly thirty years she was the faithful and cheery wife of a happy and devoted husband. She was affectionate, self-forgetting and thoughtful to promote the happiness of her husband and children. She made home so bright and happy that it was indeed a beautiful type of the heavenly home. Engaged in teaching, she was loved as a mother by her pupils. She was both magnetic and amiable, attracting all who met her and loved by all who knew her. She leaves two sons and four daughters, to all of whom she has transmitted a large share of her own peculiar character and amiability. She was the best wife and the best of mothers. Her last words: "I am trusting all with the Lord, as I have done from the beginning." Message to absent loved ones: "Tell them I have a great deal of love for them all." She asked for the hymns, "Jesus, lover of my soul," etc., "Now, mark it."

We will ever cherish the memory of her many virtues, more brilliant and durable than diamonds.

(Signed) HER BEREAVED HUSBAND, B. H. MALONE,
August 27, 1891. Rector, Arkansas.

(134) HARRY STEPHENS MALONE.

(Residence, Martinez, Contra Costa County, California.)

Son of Rev. B. H. Malone (122) and Nannie Leonora Stephens (121). Born in Tuscumbia, Alabama, 4 July, 1863. He was born in Alabama, but at time of his birth, his parents were only visiting Alabama, being residents of Tennessee, and until 19 years of age thought himself a native Tennesseean. At an early age he displayed a love for country life, and was specially fond of farming. When 10 years of age, he made a "cotton crop," swapping work with an old negro who plowed Harry's cotton and Harry paid him in chopping and hoeing cotton in return. His father tried to discourage his farming tendencies by making him turn over to him one-half of all he made. He only tried to make his half as large as the whole of the preceeding year. At sixteen and a half years of age, he began to teach at Waverly, Tennessee, by taking place of a teacher who was ill one morning. The teacher, instead of being ill for one hour or two, was unable to return for one month. He retained a place in the school for fifteen months, and was afterward principal. He resigned December, 1882, to go to Gardner, Tennessee. He was there for two years as principal, resigning for principalship of Boarding School at Pinson, Tennessee. After having resigned at Gardner, and going to Pinson, the Trustees, seeing how youthful he was, tried to have him resign in favor of some older person, but the contract was made and he would not give way. For one week the opening was deferred, so that matters might be settled. He and his sister Elsie taught as associates for two years. She married and he remained one year longer, after which he was re-elected, receiving on first ballot over five competitors, fifteen votes, being the total cast at a meeting of Stockholders and Trustees of the school. He had made no application and when the position was tendered him for three years, he declined it and went west, remaining in Kansas City for about a half year. From there he went to Dallas, Texas, where, for one and a half years he was engaged in publishing the Texas Land and Immigrational Journal. This enterprise proved a great financial success for the whole of its existence which was until the interests of different sections of the State began to show sectional prejudice. The Official Organ of the State Immigration Association, of Texas, fell with the Association, and Malone found himself deep in debt, about three thousand dollars. Shortly afterward he went to Old Mexico, and afterward returned to Texas; made a second visit to the City of Mexico, and in October, 1888, went to San Francisco, California, landing there October 17, on the Steamer Santa Rosa, with fifty-five cents. He, that day at 10 o'clock, began to solicit for book sellers as a "book agent." He continued for several months at this business. He then began work as Life insurance Solicitor, in which business he is still engaged. He now has at Martinez, an office which is a credit both to himself and the New York Life Insurance Company which he represents.

Will be married 12 October, 1892, this date being the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus.

(160) ELIJAH CLARK.

Residence, 2241 Central Avenue, Alameda, California).

Son of Elijah Clark (159) and Mary Hamilton. Born in Milton (now Orneville), Maine, 4 May, 1832.

When four years old he went to Maumee City, Ohio, with his parents, where he resided until about eighteen years of age, when he went to Paris, Kentucky, and entered the jewelry business. While here he met Ella Lou Stephens (41) and was married to her 30 January, 1854. They soon moved to Lexington Kentucky, where Mr. Clark at once became the most prominent jeweler of the city. In 1865, he sold out his profitable business and invested a portion of the proceeds, $20,000, in building a river steamboat, the "Thomas Powell." He then went to the South and had fair prospects of making considerable money, transporting cotton and other freight, on the lower Mississippi and tributaries when, owing to the scarcity of boats at the close of the late war, it was seized by the United States Government

CARLTON HAMILTON CLARK (1611).

Stephen Burbridge, commanding), and used to convey troops to various points. When the vessel was returned to Mr. Clark's hands it was so greatly damaged that it was sold for a tride. He then went to Louisville, Kentucky, and started again in the jewelry business. In 1870, he invented an "Automatic Electrical Steam Gauge," which he patented and the Government ordered one on every steam vessel in the United States. A company was organized for their manufacture, and considerable money was made, but as usual in these cases, the company kept the money and the inventor got nothing. He shortly afterwards invented and patented an electrical clock (about 1872), and in 1885 (24 November), patented a "Micrometer Gauge," an instrument that can be found on every watchmaker's table. He is now located at 129 Sutter street, San Francisco, California, where he continues his business of watchmaker and jeweler.

(162) DR. EDWARD STEPHENS CLARK.

(Residence, 2018 Central Avenue, Alameda, California.)

Son of Elijah Clark (160) and Ella Lou Stephens (41). Born in Paris, Kentucky, 28 September, 1856. His parents shortly afterwards moved to Lexington, Kentucky, and remained during the war. They then went to Boston, Massachusetts, in 1865, leaving Edward (and his brother Carlton) with his grandfather, Joseph Stephens (2), in Paris, Kentucky, where he received a common school education. When only a boy he became interested in the natural sciences, especially chemistry, and devoted most of his spare time to the study of these. When seventeen years of age he began the study of medicine, and in 1874 attended his first course of lectures at the Hospital College of Medicine in Louisville, Kentucky. After the close of lectures, he became interested in the study of geology and palaeontology, and in the following six years, during his leisure hours, he collected throughout Indiana and Kentucky specimens numbering upwards of 10,000, which he has now deposited in the California Academy of Sciences, San Francisco.

In 1875 he taught a country school for one session, and after this he entered the drug business, in which he continued off and on until 1879, when he finished his medical education and graduated from the Hospital College of Medicine, 26 February, 1880. He practiced in Louisville for about a year, and then temporarily engaged in railroad surveying, accepting the position of Chief Engineer of the M. F. L. & D. Ry.; he surveyed and located this road and assisted in the location of several other railroads in Indiana and Kentucky.

In April, 1884, he went to California on a visit, remaining for several months, visiting the gold mines, among other places of interest. He paid some attention to mining methods, and on his return home invented and applied for a patent on an improved amalgamator, which he tried in the Georgia mines and proving successful here, he made another trip to California the following year to place his machines there, having formed a company for their manufacture. He abandoned this business, however, not being able to agree with the company as to location of machines.

In 1886 he entered the laboratory of Redington & Co., as chemist. He followed this for about a year and then resumed practice of his profession. Is now located at 16 Geary street, San Francisco, California, as a specialist in the treatment of eye, ear, nose and throat diseases.

Dr. Clark is a member of the County and State Medical Societies, The San Francisco Microscopical Society, The San Francisco Bacteriological Society, The San Francisco Polyclinic, where he has entire charge of the Aural Clinic, The Astronomi-

(252) LAWRENCE D. STEPHENS.

(Residence, Woodland, California.)

Son of James M. Stephens (55) and Mary Ann Adams (56). Born in Bunceton, Cooper County, Missouri, 30 June, 1835.

At the age of seventeen, after a great deal of coaxing and persuading, his parents consented for him to go to California, which was considered almost out of the world. They thought complete education better than a rich miner, but finally yielded, and fitted out an ox team for the trip overland, and with three other young men, on April 11th, 1852, with bright hopes they started by land for California, and arrived in Yolo County about August 10th. Here he was employed by his uncle, John Adams, to work on a farm for twelve months. The next year he tried farming on his own account, and after that bought some cattle and sheep and tried stock raising with more or less success until 1865. Then tried mining one year near Grass Valley, but that not proving a success, returned to Yolo County and went into farming. In 1874, moved to Woodland and took charge of the Grangers' warehouse which was owned by a large number of farmers, and for two years managed the business. Was one of the subscribers to the capital stock of the Bank of Woodland when organized in 1869, and was elected a director of the bank, which office he has held ever since. Was married to Miss Alice E. Hurt (253), of Woodland, 19 May, 1876, and they made a trip to the Eastern States, taking in the Centennial and most of the large cities. After returning home he entered largely into buying wheat, in partnership with Mr. J. H. Harlan, and continued in that business until 1882, when he was prevailed upon to accept a position as a salaried officer in the Bank of Woodland. Is still interested in farming and stock raising with his brother, J. J., and J. H. Harlan, in Fresno County, and with his brother in Yolo County.

(267) THOMAS GARRARD STEPHENS, M. D., Ph. D.

(Residence, Sidney, Iowa).

Son of Thomas Stephens (36) and Mary Fisher (278). Was born in Preble County, Ohio, 15 June, 1832.

When quite young the family emigrated to Henry County, Indiana, where he passed his childhood and two years of his youth.

At the age of sixteen he entered the Fair Haven High School, Ohio, where he remained for two scholastic terms studying the classics and higher mathematics, continuing his course of studies the next year under the Rev. William Park at Beech Grove Academy. In November, 1849, he made a trip to Ruddell's Mills, Bourbon County, Kentucky, on business, expecting to return again to his school, but was taken sick with typhoid fever and in the following spring found himself a physical wreck and without means to pay his debts and return to his class.

He then obtained a teacher's certificate and soon secured a six months school, after the close of which attended Nourse's Academy in Millersburg, Kentucky, afterwards staying in Dr. W. P. Savage's drug store for a few months, where he began the study of medicine. He then taught school another six months, and afterwards attended Georgetown College, devoting his time principally to Latin and Greek. After this time continued to teach school and study medicine until October, 1854, when he went to Cleveland, Ohio, and matriculated at the Western Reserve Medical College. A few weeks afterwards there was a call made by Dr. Cleveland, the city physician, for an assistant physician and druggist to reside at the City Hospital. Young Stephens was the successful candidate, securing both positions with the privilege of attending a sufficient number of lectures to enable him to retain his standing in the class. Here he remained until the first of March, 1856, when the Medical Faculty conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Medicine.

Resigning his position as assistant City physician and apothecary, he returned to Kentucky, spending most of his time at Frankfort and Ruddell's Mills. He married 28 August, 1856, Margaret Jane Thomas, of Bourbon County, Kentucky, and moved to Clay County, Missouri, in March, 1857, where he immediately entered into a lucrative practice, remaining until his business was seriously affected by the late rebellion, when he removed to his present home in Sidney, Iowa (13 August, 1864). He obtained at once a large practice, and the following year opened up a drug store which he conducted for fifteen years in conjunction with his practice.

Since he commenced the practice of medicine he has attended lectures at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, the Bellevue Hospital Medical College and received the ad eundem degree from the Medical Department of the Western Reserve University.

He has written a great deal on the subject of medicine and the collateral sciences, and is now a paid contributor to some of the leading medical journals.

Among the original articles written or reported by him, may be mentioned the following:—

"Spontaneous paracentesis abdominis, recovery," Medical World Philadelphia, 1888.

"China doll lodged in the trachea seven months and twenty-nine days, recovery," Medical World, 1888.

"Case of spurious hydrophobia," Medical World, 1888.

"Bilateral fracture of the inferior maxilla," Times and Register, Philadelphia, 1888.

"Fracture of the femur," Times and Register, Philadelphia, 1889.

"Acute primary pneumonia," Times and Register, Phila., 1891.

"Carcinoma of the liver," Medical World, Philadelphia, 1889.

"Poisoned by eating wild cherries," Medical World, Phila., 1889.

"Foreign body in the abdominal wall," Medical Summary, 1889.

"Poisoned by Rhus toxicodendron," Medical World, 1889.

"Outline of senile pneumonia and treatment," Med. Sum., 1889.

"Ginseng (Panax quinquefolium)," Medical Summary, 1889.

"Studies on Veratrum Viride (American Hellebore)," Gaillard's Medical Journal, New York, 1891.

"General dropsies," Medical Standard, Chicago, 1891.

"Copaiba and its history," Medical Bulletin, 1891.

Notwithstanding the doctor has always had a physical ailment, besides another added ten years ago, and his avocations being arduous, he is remarkably well preserved for one of his years. Is politically a Democrat of the temperance type, strongly favoring prohibition, religiously a Presbyterian, never played a game of cards, never danced a set, nor defiles himself with tobacco.

On 13 March, 1879, he was married to Mrs. Mary C. Copeland, of Fremont County, Iowa, who died 14 May following.

On 6 September, 1881, when on his way to visit some patients he collided with a cyclone, and was taken with buggy and team into the air, being dashed to the ground. He received severe injuries which kept him from work for several months.

Was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson Moore, of Sidney, Iowa, 7 September, 1881, the day after the accident, thus fulfilling an engagement which was to have been consummated the following week.

JOSEPH JOSIAH STEPHENS (1825)

323 JOSEPH JOSIAH STEPHENS.

(Retired, Woodland, California.)

Son of James Madison Stephens (55) and Mary Ann Adams (56). Born in Paneeton, Missouri, 25 October, 1836. Was educated in the district schools of the place of his birth, living on the old homestead until eighteen years of age, when he left the home of his parents in 1854 to visit the land of gold. He came to California and engaged in the sheep business, remaining in the Sacramento Valley two years. He then returned to Missouri on 21 January, 1857, was married to Elizabeth Davis (332), and with his young wife, then but eighteen years of age, they started on their weary wedding tour to California. In company with a number of others they brought a herd of cattle across the plains, landed safely in Yolo County in the fall of the same year, and ever since, this has been their home. About this time a joint partnership was formed with his brother, L. D. Stephens (252), which is still unbroken, and together they have accumulated quite a comfortable fortune, consisting mostly of land, having twenty-seven hundred acres, situated in Yolo and Fresno Counties. It is all under cultivation in a high degree and very valuable. They are also large owners in the Woodland Bank and other smaller properties. The subject of this sketch quit his active farm life about twelve years ago and assumed control of the Madison Warehouse Company, located at Madison and Esparto, in which he owns a large interest. He has raised a family of three sons and three daughters, all of whom are grown and married, except the two younger daughters, who are still at home. Mr. Stephens moved from his farm home to Woodland in the year 1889, where they still reside on Cross street. He is, at this writing, in perfect health, weighing two hundred and twenty pounds and apparently good for many more years' active life. He takes a great deal of interest in politics, but has never accepted any honors in that line, though they have been repeatedly offered him. He prefers freedom from political thraldom, and is looked upon as one of the solid men of Yolo County, an honor he has fairly won by his past life and successes.

(329) JAMES M. STEPHENS.

(Residence, Austin, Texas.)

Son of James M. Stephens (55) and Mary Ann Adams (56). Born in Bunceton, Missouri, in 1847. At the age of sixteen years, joined General Price's army and fought on the side of the confederacy until that cause was lost. Was in Louisiana when the war closed, when he returned home to Missouri and remained a short time. Then he went to school at Dartmouth College for three years. After leaving College he located in Texas, where he engaged in mercantile business for a few years, but was burnt out, and losing most of his goods turned his face westward, and for five years engaged extensively in farming in Yolo County, California, with good success. In 1883, returned to Texas, where he has remained ever since. Has never married.

On first landing in California, like all of the Argonauts, he tried his fortune in the mines for a few years with varying success, but a quiet life was more congenial to his tastes and now he takes pride in his large flocks of sheep, "grazing on a thousand hills," takes life easy and never tires of talking of the corruption of politics and politicians, and advocating, in its most radical forms of vagrance. Is one of the largest land owners in Yolo County, his possessions amounting to over fifteen thousand acres, a great portion being of the finest quality.

Residence, Sedalia, Missouri.

Son of Dr. B. W. Levens (84) and Rhoda Stephens (66). Born in Cooper County, Missouri, 27 March, 1821. He followed farming until about of age, then taught school for a while. In 1848, went to Oregon with his cousins James Isaac and Zach. Levens, taught school in Clackamas City until May, 1849, when he went to the gold mines in California, arriving there 1 July, 1849. He returned home to Missouri in 1851 and resumed school teaching until 1853, when he was elected County Clerk of Cooper County. He retained this office twenty-one years—from 1 January, 1854, to 3 January, 1875—being elected four different times, and this although he never sought office. He married Margaret J. Lawton (593), 16 March, 1856. He obtained a license to practice law in March, 1848, but did not practice until he left the County Clerkship, then held the office of City Attorney of Boonville until 1877. At this time he removed to his farm in Gunn City, Missouri, where he remained two years, and was then elected City Attorney of Holden, Missouri. In 1881 he removed to Sedalia, Missouri, where he held office of Justice of the Peace, and in 1886 was elected Police Judge for two years. Again in 1890 was nominated, without his knowledge or consent, and re-elected to that position by a large Republican majority. Although he held office so many years, he never sought for it nor did any electioneering. In 1876, in conjunction with N. M. Drake, he wrote "A History of Cooper County, Missouri."*

(391) CHARLES A. STEPHENS.

(Residence, Fresno County, California.)

Son of Joseph J. Stephens (323) and Elizabeth Davis (332). Born in Yolo County, California, 26 January, 1863.

He attended the county school until seventeen years of age, at which time he entered Hesperian College, Woodland, California, from which institution he graduated in 1883. He then followed the vocation of farming for two or three years, after which he moved to Modoc County, and engaged in the general merchandise business for a few years. The great boom in Fresno City had its attractions for thousands of people, and at this time he closed out his Modoc business and located in Fresno City. During the times of the boom he followed the lucrative business of a real estate dealer in a manner very much to his financial interest. Just at the close of the activity in real estate circles, he invested in a farm near Fresno City, which has been his home until recently, when he assumed the management of the Harlan & Stephens tract of land of little less than three thousand acres, also in Fresno County. At present, his home is on this place, though he still retains possession and control of his own place, which is but a few miles distant. He is a thorough business man; of small stature, brown hair, blue eyes and weighs about one hundred and forty pounds; belongs to the sanguine temperament, and bids fair to stand foremost among men. He was married 25 August, 1888, to Katie N. Wilson (393), at which time they settled on their farm home in Fresno County. They have no children.

(392) RICHARD B. BUTLER.

(Residence, Wildflower, Fresno County, California.)

(393) KATIE NELLIE WILSON

(Residence, Fresno, California.)

Daughter of Henry William Wilson and Josephine Rucker. Born in Helena, Montana, 3 October, 1867. Her father died when she was three months old and her mother married again to D. Wildy while she was a mere babe. She was then christened under the name of Katie Wildy in the M. E. Church South. She went by this name until she was grown to womanhood and married. At the age of nine years she was taken by her only brother and placed in the Catholic convent at Ashland, Oregon, where she was a hard student for four and one-half years. The last year of which she was employed as teacher of art needle work. At this time her brother died, and being thrown on her own responsibility, she learned the millinery and dressmaking trades in order to be better prepared to cope with the world. She followed these trades in connection with her art needle work until her marriage. When she came to California she was sixteen years of age and she opened an art and millinery store at Redding, Shasta County, and later one of the same kind at Madera, Fresno County. She has met and competed successfully with some of the most learned and advanced teachers in art needle work, many times having had some of them as her pupils, and always gained every prize she ever competed for with her work. She was married 25 August, 1889, to C. A. Stephens (391), after which they moved to their farm home near Fresno City, California. They still reside in this county, and though she has frequently been importuned to open an art store in Fresno she has not consented to change their present pleasant surroundings for the confining duties of such an undertaking.

(448) LEWIS OLIVER STEPHENS.

(Residence, Fresno City, California. Business address, 1141 I street.)

Son of Joseph Stephens (323) and Elizabeth Davis (332). Born near Madison, Yolo County, California, 31 May, 1858. Was educated in Yolo County public schools, mostly in Gordon district, afterwards finished with a college education at Hesperian College, Woodland, California. Graduated from that institution May, 1881. Spent some three years farming in Yolo County. He married Bettie Bean (451), 29 October, 1884, in Paris, Missouri, and moved directly to the farm home, in Yolo County, California. After two more years of farming, moved to Woodland, and embarked in the furniture and undertaking business. After two years in this successful venture, Daniel O. Bean and family moved to California, and the partnership of Stephens & Bean was formed, of which the subject of this sketch is the Stephens or senior member of the firm. Business still improved and grew until in the beginning of the year 1891, a branch house was opened in Fresno, of which L. O. Stephens assumed the management. It has now been in operation about seven months and at the present writing is on a firm financial basis and no longer an experiment.

(450) BETTIE O. STEPHENS.

(Residence, Woodland, California.)

Daughter of Joseph J. Stephens (323) and Elizabeth Davis (332). Born in Madison, California, 18 February, 1880.

(451) BETTIE BEAN.

(Residence, Fresno City, California.)

Daughter of Daniel O. Bean, of Philadelphia, and Matilda Woods, of Missouri. Born in Paris, Monroe County, Missouri, 21 December, 1858. Was educated in the public and high schools of Paris, Missouri, and finished with a musical education under Professor Dana, of Dana's Institute in the fall of 1876. Her parents stood high in civil and social circles in Paris, and no lady was more popular than Miss Bean in the City of Paris, and in entertainment none more versatile. She is well qualified for any position, having a bright mind, quick to think, a brilliant conversationalist and with her accomplishments in music, painting, etc., is able to grace any position in the most pleasing manner either in ordinary or aristocratic circles. She married Lewis O. Stephens (448), 20 October, 1884.

(452) JOSEPH DANIEL STEPHENS.

(Residence, Fresno City, California.)

Son of Lewis Oliver Stephens (448) and Bettie Bean (451). Born in Woodland, California, 26 May, 1887. This bright little fellow, being the only grandson of two grandfathers, and both being desirous of honors, he was named for them both, "Joseph" "Daniel" Stephens. He is now four years old and wonderfully well developed for his age. He has a large fertile brain and his taste runs altogether to literary and mechanical lines, in both of which he takes deep interest and never tires having explained to him. Caution is well developed and he is seldom seen where there is the least danger to the physical man. Few things escape his observation and months after he can give a minute description of anything that he had seen in the past. He is very devoted to his parents and under no circumstances can any one make him say he loves one of them more than the other, even though he is punished by one of his parents, his answer is the same "I [illegible] papers." Not long since he was found on the street with a bundle of "[illegible]" papers under his arm saying "Evening papers, 5 a piece." so his papa sent him customers by furnishing several bystanders with nickels; he was very proud of his money-making and put it in his bank to go to school with as he says, "when I get big." If nothing happens to mar his prospects and all goes well, he will be among some of the foremost men of the future.

524) WILLIAM WALLACE STEPHENS.

(Residence, Chattanooga, Hamilton County, Tennessee.)

Son of Nelson Stephens (33) and Anna E. Wyatt (207). Born in Ruddell's Mills, Kentucky, 21 September, 1851. He lived there until about 1862 or 1863, when his father removed to Danville, Boyle County, Kentucky, and where, at the age of fifteen years, he left his father and returned to his native County, "Bourbon," working in the capacity of miller for the various distilleries there located, until 1877, when he engaged as traveling salesman for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company, until 1879, when he went to Santa Fe, New Mexico, remaining in New Mexico until July 9, 1875, at which time he started south for Brownsville, Texas, where he arrived Sunday, December 24, 1875, and remained until July 1878, going thence to Northern Texas. About August, 1879, he started from San Antonio, Texas, by way of San Francisco, to Australia, remaining only about sixteen months there, when he went back to America, but just before reaching Gibraltar, in the Mediterranean, he engaged as assistant book-keeper and corresponding clerk with a large English firm of Calcutta and going to Calcutta, remained some few months, when, in company with two members of the firm he went to Africa, and after a sojourn of nearly two years, returned to Calcutta, and there remained until 10 May, 1883, when he started again on his homeward journey, landing at San Francisco, 28 July, 1883, and arrived at Ruddell's Mills, August 8th, 1883. After a few days at home with his parents, he went to Lexington, and engaged in railroading as chief clerk in the Motive Power department of the Lexington division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. In 1886, he obtained an appointment in the postoffice at Lexington, where he remained a year, then came south, locating in Chattanooga, Tennessee, with the Standard Oil Company, where he has remained for the past four years. He married Georgia Eades Walter (747), 26 December, 1883.

(541) PHILIP DEVER STEPHENS.

Son of William Stephens (57) and Rowena Dever. Born in Wythe County, Virginia, 25 September, 1812.

He moved with his father (William Stephens) and grandfather Joseph Stephens (7), to Cooper County, Missouri (then Howard County). He remained in this locality until 1838, when he married Sarah M. Howard (542), and moved to the south line of Cooper County. He soon moved to Moniteau County, and in 1847, was elected Sheriff. Served in this capacity until 1850, when he resigned and organized a company of gold hunters. They crossed the plains to California, where he opened a provision store in Drytown. He remained only a short time and then returned to Cooper County, Missouri, by steamer to Isthmus of Panama, Cuba, New Orleans and up the Mississippi. He bought a farm in Cooper County, but sold it within a year and went to farming. Afterwards he went into the grocery and general merchandise business with his brother-in-law, Waid Howard, in the fall of 1858. He was very successful in this until the war broke out and swept away all his property, store, home and all. At this age (fifty-three), he again hooked up his ox teams and took his entire family (except one son who was in the army), and started gold hunting, locating first at Boise City, Idaho, 16 August, 1864, and two months later at Idaho City, where nearly all his family was taken with typhoid fever. His wife dying in January, 1865, he remained here until December, 1867, when he returned to Missouri, where he again went into business. In 1868, he married Mrs. Mary Smith and lived happily and contented until his death. He died 17 July, 1877, near Tipton, Missouri.

543 DR. JOSEPH JEFFERSON STEPHENS.

(Residence, 314 East Green Street, Clinton, Missouri.)

Son of Philip D. Stephens (541) and Sarah M. Howard (542). Born in Cooper County, Missouri, 15 March, 1842. Was raised on farm till fourteen years old, when his father engaged in merchandising and used him as a clerk. When a boy he was master of natural philosophy: nothing pleased him more than to see a storm and watch the freaks of the electricity. Spent his early days at and near Tipton, Missouri, and California, Missouri. Has a warm place in heart for his friends. He was educated at the common County schools and academies. Was a Union soldier during the war, and was in the battles before Nashville, Tennessee, in 1864. On December 16 and 17, was in Banks's famous Red River Expedition.

He has always been an uncompromising Democrat, until the tariff became an issue when he voted with the Republicans. He is the inventor of a number of useful inventions, prominent among which is the Stephens saddle bags and buggy case for physicians, which are so widely known in the United States, Canada and South America. This industry is carried on and is known as Stephens-Weller Saddle Bag Company, 613 Main Street, St. Louis, Missouri, (stock company). He is a resident of the city of Clinton, Missouri, where he has a large practice. He married Lizzie Jane Smith (802), 8 February, 1866.

(544) STEPHEN HOWARD STEPHENS.

(Residence, Boonville, Missouri.)

Son of Philip D. Stephens (541) and Sarah M. Howard (542). Born in Cooper County, Missouri, 7 November, 1844. He worked on a farm until 1856, when his father took him in his store as a clerk at Round Hill, Missouri. Here he remained one year, then attended school for a year, and then accepted a position as clerk in his uncle's store in Tipton, Missouri. He retained this position until 1864, when he went with his father to the Idaho gold fields. He vibrated between Idaho City and Oregon, sometimes freighting, sometimes mining, until 1868, when he returned to Missouri, and went to work for his cousin Col. Joseph L. Stephens (416), of Boonville. On 1 July, 1869, he married Mary E. Taliaferro, (549), and the next year moved to Moniteau County, where he began farming. He continued this in Howard County, the succeeding year, and in 1872, opened a merchandise store in Bunceton, Missouri. Here he remained until 1879, when he sold out and went to Kansas, and began wool growing. One year of this was enough, and in 1881, he returned to Boonville, Missouri, and entered into the hardware and implement business. His wife died 6 November, 1884, and he married again Sue C. Mitchell (550), 1 October, 1885. In 1890, was nominated as Democratic candidate for County Treasurer and elected by 616 majority.

(837) RICHARD B. BUTLER (392).

(Residence, Wildflower, Fresno County, California.)

Son of J. D. Butler. Born in Cleveland County, North Carolina, 17 May, 1843. Was educated in the public schools of Cherokee County, Alabama, to which place his parents moved when he was quite young. R. B. Butler was the oldest of ten children and at the age of sixteen, he entered the confederate cavalry, under the command of General Wheeler. He fought all through the war and carries some mementos of conflicts, in the form of wounds caused by the enemy's shot. After the war, young Butler remained at home for three years, after which time he went to Texas, bought a herd of cattle, and in company with H. B. Johnson, a present brother-in-law, drove them to California for sale. This was his first visit to the Pacific Coast. After a short tour of inspection, he returned to his old home in Alabama, and in the year 1871, moved to California, bringing with him the entire family. They settled in Yolo County, where Mr. Butler spent some time in the then lucrative business of farming. In 1875, he was employed as business manager for W. Levy, who conducted the largest general merchandise business in Yolo County. He was married in Yolo County, 18 November, 1879, to Mary Francis Stephens (390), and they immediately moved to Fresno County, where Mr. Butler had previously bought land and founded his home. Since that time he has been extensively engaged in stock raising and the raisin business. He has been connected with the irrigation system of Fresno County since its infancy, and has done much to further its development. He is President of the Fowler Switch Canal Company, which is the largest irrigation system in Fresno County. The people of Fresno County, complimented Mr. Butler by electing him to a seat on the County Board of Supervisors in 1890, which position he has filled with credit to himself and his constituents. In stature, Mr. Butler is of slender form, dark eyes and hair; weight about 150 pounds. He is in the prime of life; his health is good and promises to continue to a good old age, as did his father and grandfathers before him.
